

FEMA & CDAA

TIME LIMITS & COST SHARE

CDAA vs. FEMA – The table below shows the differences between state and federal disaster assistance programs.

Issue	Federal Declaration		State – CDAA
	FEMA	CDAA (Cost Share)	Governor's Proclamation	Director's Concurrence
Application Deadline	30 days from the declaration date		60 days from local emergency date	60 days from local emergency date
Emergency Work	Eligible (ONLY OVERTIME salary and benefit for public safety and emergency services personnel)	Straight Cost Share	Eligible (ONLY OVERTIME salary and benefit for public safety and emergency services personnel)	Not eligible
Permanent Work	Eligible	Straight Cost Share	Eligible	Eligible
Completion Deadlines (Emergency Work)	6 months		6 months	NA
Completion Deadlines (Permanent Work)	18 months		18 months	18 months
Cost Share with Other Federal Agencies (i.e., NRCS, USACE)	NA	Straight Cost Share with other Federal Agencies	May be eligible for straight cost share with other federal agencies	May be eligible for straight cost share of permanent work only with other federal agencies
Appeals (1st and 2nd)	Applicant must submit request within 60 days from receipt of determination		NA	NA
Fair Hearing Request (1st and 2nd)	NA	NA	Applicant must submit request 60 days from receipt of Cal OES determination letter	Applicant must submit request 60 days from receipt of Cal OES determination letter
Net Small Project Overrun (NSPO) Appeal (1st and 2nd)	Applicant must submit request within 60 days of completing its last Small Project	NA	NA	NA
Application Closeout Deadline	Within 60 days from completion of all projects	60 days from date of transmittal of FEMA FIR/Appeal determination	60 days from completion of all projects	60 days from completion of all projects

Reference

- CDAA, Sections 8685-8587.8
- Title 19, CCR, Sections 2970, 2980, and 2990,